More Judges, Help for Aged, Housing on Slate

Action Is To Clear Up Court Cases Major Plans Made Near Session End

Albany, N. Y., March 16 (AP)—The Republican-controlled assembly Rules Committee has introduced a plan to add 20 justices to State Supreme Court, six fewer than the temporary state commission on the courts had proposed.

All 20 would be added in New York city, Long Island and the Westchester area. The GOP bill eliminated six the commission had asked for.

It was reported—without official confirmation—that the justiceships would be divided equally between Democrats and Republicans.

THE COMMISSION had advanced its 26-judge plan as a way of clearing the jam of accident cases, particularly in New York city.

It was understood that the GOP saw no desperate need for the upstate justice posts, particularly as they apparently would have to be shared with Democrats.

In other capitol developments, the Republican majorities put the whips to two major programs as the Legislature headed into its final week.

THEY WERE:

1. A $7,300,000 program to help the aging. Assembly Speaker Oswald D. Heck and Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney of the Senate called it "the most comprehensive program to aid older citizens ever considered by any state Legislature."

2. A broad housing program encompassing a 100-million-dollar bond issue to spur construction of middle-income housing, and a 50-million-dollar loan plan to help localities clear slums.

THE GOP court bill kept the same New York city lineup on proposed new justices as the commission measure: Six for the first judicial district, comprising Manhattan and the Bronx; six for the second, consisting of Brooklyn and Staten Island; one for the ninth, comprising Dutchess, Orange, Putnam, Rockland and Westchester counties; and seven for the 10th, comprising Nassau, Queens and Suffolk counties.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York city is reported to be cool toward the idea because the increase would add considerably to the city's cost of court operations.

KNOCKED OUT by the GOP measure were two justices for the fifth judicial district around Syracuse; one for the sixth district in south-central New York; one for the seventh district in the Rochester region, and two for the eighth district in western New York.

Under the Republican program for middle-income housing, the voters next fall would be asked to approve a proposition for 200 million to make low-interest loans to private companies for construction of dwellings.

LAST YEAR, the Legislature set aside 50 million from previously authorized housing bonds to divert to middle-income housing.

Yesterday, Gov. Harriman sent a special message to the GOP-dominated Legislature urging "immediate action" on his request for the 200-million-dollar bond issue.

He said the state had been

Move on Cutting Pact Is Big News

Moscow, March 16 (AP)—Soviet attempts to dismantle the Baghdad pact reached a new high today.

All papers here published prominently the news that first Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan, the Soviet trade expert, will attend the celebration of the establishment of Pakistan as a Republic in Karachi March 23.

Pravda and Izvestia hinted broadly that the Soviet government will shortly invite Turkey's leaders to visit the Soviet Union. They expressed hope also for improved Turkish-Soviet relations.

Pravda, the Communist Party newspaper, said that during the days when Soviet-Turkish relations were at their best more than two decades ago personal meetings of statesmen of both countries were "of outstanding importance."

Payless Esopus Workmen Change Minds, Clear Snow

Forecast of heavy snow figured in the supervisorship controversy in the Town of Esopus today, and there were other developments, which formed this picture of the whole affair:

1. Fourteen workers payless two weeks changed their minds and went to work clearing highways.

2. Edward Eckert, who claims he's still supervisor, said a meeting of the town board would be called to fill two vacancies because of resignations.

3. Arnold Ellsworth, who also claims the supervisor's office, offered to sign pay checks for town employees and those on welfare.

THE FOURTEEN highway employees refused to go to work this morning when they appeared at the town barn, but changed their minds when snow began to fall.

Forecasts were for up to six inches in the area.

Paul Mercier, road superintendent, said the crews considered travel would be hazardous, and said "we have to think of the taxpayers too."

Two weeks ago payroll checks were refused by the bank until the supervisorship is cleared up.

MID-MONTH payroll date was March 15, and there were no checks then either.

Ellsworth, who was appointed supervisor by the town board after Eckert reportedly resigned, said "I will be available any time to sign the checks."

Eckert allegedly withdrew his resignation, and kept the town records and books.

Carvel Hearing Has Other Angles Corral and Billboard Are Zoning Subjects

Decisions on several previously aired zoning applications are expected to be made at its second meeting next Wednesday night in addition to the reopening of hearing on the application of the Carvel Corp., for permission to build an ice cream store at Foxhall and Albany avenues, it was announced today.

Dock, Ship Company Is Formed Here

A new company, I. D. Associates, Inc., has been formed at Island Dock to engage in shipbuilding and dock construction, it was announced today.

The new company will engage in construction and repair of river, harbor and canal vessels of all types. It will do Hudson river dock construction and repairs, and provide imaginative engineering services to the marine construction fields. Several projects are now under way.

OFFICERS of the company are Kenneth H. Wood, 100 Johnston avenue, president; Richard K. Wood, Sharon Lane, vice-president; Roger W. Mabie, of Port Ewen, secretary and general manager, and John F. McNierney, Lake Katrine, treasurer.

Naval architects and engineers are W. duBarry Thomas, and Robert M. Wilkinson, both of Woodstock. Directors are Kenneth H. Wood, Roger W. Mabie and John F. McNierney.

THE COMPANY has a number of projects under way, including construction of two 1,000-ton steel, coal barges for the Sargent Line Corp., New York, and the building of a 42-foot tugboat.

It will also build two 45-foot steel deck barges and one 5,000-gallon oil barge for the Suffolk county Board of Supervisors. It will install a new bottom on a steel cargo barge for the Reliance Marine Transportation and Construction Corp. of this city.

It also is furnishing fabrication of structural steel for the rebuilding of the Ulster County Savings Institution, and repair of the flood-damaged abutment of the Eddyville bridge.

110 Booths Make Up Show Lions Exposition Opens on Tuesday

A total of 110 booths, expected to attract upwards of 20,000 persons, have been rented for the ninth annual Industrial Exposition and Home Show — Kingston Area on Parade — which opens Tuesday night, under the sponsorship of the Kingston Lions Club, for a five-day "stand" in the state armory on Manor avenue, it was announced today by Warren F. Smith, chairman.

AVERAGE attendance at the exposition was about 15,000 persons, Mr. Smith said. This year, however, as many as 20,000 may visit the industrial and home exhibits at the exposition, he said.

Mayor and Mrs. Frederick H. Stang will cut the ribbon officially opening the exposition at 7 p. m. One of the primary objectives of the exposition is raising of funds for the many charitable and service activities of the Lions Club.

WARREN F. SMITH

THE "FORMAT" of the show has been reorganized this year and the stage will be at the far end of the drill shed—at the farthest point from the entrance to the armory. As the audience leaves the stage area it will file back through exhibition exhibits thus encouraging further spectator interest in the booths. This arrangement will also increase the area available to exhibitors.

There will be many spectacular exhibits this year of interest to purchasers as well as those interested in scientific and technical advances, Mr. Smith told The Freeman.

Saboteurs Cut Communications

Masked Gunners Burn French Cars in Algiers

Algiers, March 16 (AP)—Masked machinegunners set fire to a huge French garage in a terrorist raid in the heart of this Algerian metropolis today.

In western Algeria guerrillas staged massive sabotage of communications. That recalled tactics used by the Communist-led Vietnamese against French in Indochina.

THE FRENCH put a midnight to 5 a. m. curfew in Algiers and sent troops scurrying over the countryside in search of the saboteurs.

The machinegunners seized the garage just before 2 a. m., held off watchmen, poured gasoline over the floor and set it ablaze.

The raiders made their escape as the blaze swept through the garage, located below a big French apartment house. The fire destroyed more than 100 cars.

French families in the apartment house fled when a young French soldier spotted the flames and gave the alarm.

THE RAID, most sensational terrorist outburst in Algiers of the 16-month-old revolt, came only a few hours after the French Parliament in Paris gave Premier Guy Mollet's government the final go-ahead for an all-out fight to smash the rebellion.

The two Moslem watchmen at the garage were unable to identify the raiders. Police assumed they were rebels but did not exclude the possibility they might have been French counter-terrorists seeking to provoke stronger government action against the Nationalists.

Such counter-terrorists were active in French Morocco before France granted that protectorate freedom.

Robert Lacoste, France's minister for Algerian affairs, was due to fly here from Paris tomorrow to begin putting the government's new emergency powers into effect.

MOSLEM terrorists shot down one European in the Bougie region and carried out other harassing attacks around Bone. French troops fought a running battle with 80 rebels north of Lafayette, killing 20 of them. One French soldier was reported killed.

In western Algeria near the Moroccan border the rebels carried out one of their most massive acts of sabotage, cutting the key Tlemcen-Oujda road at three places.

COPYING the tactics used by the Vietnamese in Indochina, the rebels massed scores of laborers and dug trenches across the highway during the night. They ripped up asphalt surfaces and destroyed the gravel beds beneath.

But French colonists in the stormy North African area posed the more immediate problem with a demand that death sentences hanging over some 85 Moslem terrorists be carried out by next Wednesday. A committee representing virtually every major group among the one million European residents of Algeria said they would shut down all municipal offices and stop cooperating with authorities if their ultimatum was not met.

Inconsistent, Says Schick, To Remain as Town Counsel

Stating it would be "inconsistent" to continue as counsel to the Town of Esopus town board and also represent Arnold L. Ellsworth, who is contesting the office of supervisor with Edward R. Eckert, Attorney John S. Schick Thursday afternoon told a Freeman reporter he was "withdrawing" as counsel for the town board.

Schick said to continue as attorney for the town would be "most inconsistent" since there was no longer a majority of the

Report Live Viruses Good As Defense Against Polio

Chicago, March 16 (AP)—A research group reported "a certain amount of optimism" today in efforts to immunize children against polio with live, but weakened, polio viruses.

They gave the attenuated viruses—in capsule form and in milk—to 225 children. None became ill but all developed antibodies, the protective substance nature builds up in the bloodstream to fight infection.

The antibodies indicated the infected children developed a measure of defense against paralytic polio.

The study is one of several different scientific approaches

Six Inches of Snow Due Here

Storm Batters State, Traveling Hazardous

Albany, N. Y., March 16 (AP)—A new snow onslaught struck battered and shivering New York state today and up to 12 inches was expected by nightfall.

The storm, moving northeastward, plowed in while temperatures down to four below zero gripped the state.

THE ROCHESTER weather bureau said it expected 12 inches in Monroe, Livingston and Wayne counties.

The Buffalo weather bureau warned that up to eight inches would drop on eight western New York counties, while strong winds piled up drifts. Traffic crawled in Buffalo, where the storm began early this morning.

The Albany weather bureau predicted three to six inches would fall in the southern tier, the eastern section and the Adirondacks, and from two to four in the St. Lawrence valley.

SNOW FLURRIES were in prospect for tomorrow.

Up to nine inches covered most of the state Wednesday.

The -4 temperature this morning was recorded at Massena, in the north.

OTHER OVERNIGHT lows reported by the weather bureau were on the plus side, but take a look:

Oneonta 5, Rome and Utica 10, Watertown and Binghamton 11, Albany 13, Syracuse 14, Elmira 16, Rochester 17, Olean and Poughkeepsie 18, Buffalo 20 and La Guardia Field, New York city, 31.

Meanwhile the snow upset airline schedules and making ground travel hazardous. New England was expected to get the same treatment later in the day.

THE SNOW was expected to change to rain along the coast in this area.

Connecticut was slated for three to five inches in the southern parts, and 5 to 10 in the northwest hills.

Rhode Island's weather man predicted three inches along the coast, four to six around Providence and seven inland, along with winds up to 40 miles an hour on the coast.

Horse racing at Lincoln Downs, R. I., was postponed on account of the weather.

Neutralist Position Questioned Case Would Drop Political Views

Washington, March 16 (AP)—President Eisenhower's attitude toward segregation was both criticized and defended as debate over the controversial issue flared again today in the Senate.

Sen. Lehman (D-N.Y.) quoted the President as having advocated moderation and as having warned against "the extremists" in the segregation dispute. He asked whether Eisenhower is "a neutralist."

SEN. CASE (R-N.J.) described this as an "unwarranted and unfair" suggestion and pleaded that there be no more "suggestion of politics" in debate over the school integration issue.

Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore.) told the Senate that it was Vice President Nixon who first injected politics into the issue. He said this was in a New York speech asserting that a "Republican chief justice," Earl Warren, delivered the Supreme Court's unanimous ruling against school segregation.

Case said he regards that reference by Nixon as "unfortunate" and believes the vice president feels the same way.

THE FLURRY of debate was touched off by a speech in which Lehman called upon the President to "assume the responsibility" for enforcement of the Supreme Court school integration decree. He said he could not "stand above the battle, like President Eisenhower, and say with fine impartiality that both sides must show restraint."

Case said in reply that "any suggestion that the President of the United States is a neutralist or stands above this quarrel (segregation) is unwarranted and unfair."

Case said "the President's position is clear" and "there is no justification" for carrying such a matter into politics.

HE SAID Eisenhower's whole career refutes any suggestion that he stands above the battle or that he is a "neutralist" where enforcement of the law is concerned.

Neuberger renewed his suggestion that President Eisenhower call a White House conference on racial problems.

He said that "it is incumbent on the President, whose office represents the acme of national leadership, to exercise that leadership in a national crisis as grave and as far reaching as this one."

"THE SOONER the President does so," Neuberger said, "the better are the chances to head off further deterioration of our country's strength at home and abroad."

Neuberger said it was "inconsistent" for the President to call for patience and moderation while asking for a Congressional commission which Neuberger said would have "powers of compulsion."

Eisenhower suggested Jan. 5 the creation of a Congressional commission to make a continuing study of racial tensions. He has said such a body would have greater powers than any commission he appointed since it could be given the Congressional

'Dual Parity' Is Figured Profitable

Washington, March 16 (AP)—Senators estimated today that the hairline 45-44 Senate vote to retain "dual parity" on basic farm crops—if sustained—will be worth between 350 and 400 million dollars to farmers on this year's crops.

The action yesterday still is subject to approval of the House and of President Eisenhower after the Senate completes action on the omnibus farm bill.

Congressional battles over "parity prices" have become historic and always confusing, even to the lawmakers, in recent years.

In simple terms a parity price for a farm product is supposed to be one that gives it a fair exchange value in terms of costs the farmer must pay. It changes as the costs of other things change.

The actual prices are computed by the Agriculture Department, using formulas set up in the law.

Vols Are Invited To Police Fire School April 3

The Ulster County Fire Police School, under the supervision of the Ulster county sheriff's department, will be held at the Port Ewen town hall, beginning Tuesday, April 3. The school will be continued for the month, holding sessions on April 3, 10, 17 and 24.

The school is being held through the cooperation of the Bureau of Safety of New York and instructions will be given by Dennis Hurley, attorney engaged by the State of New York. Classes will start promptly at 7:30 p. m. and all who take the course are requested to bring pencil and note-book.

CLASSES ARE open to all volunteer firemen of the county whether or not they are members of the Fire Police. The secretary of all fire companies in the county have been notified by the sheriff as to the schedule.

The training given at the school will be of great value and assistance to all who complete the course and at the conclusion of the term a certificate will be awarded by the County Fire Coordinator.

Would Limit Funds

Washington, March 16 (AP)—Senate Democratic Leader Johnson of Texas said today he and Republican Leader Knowland of California are working on a proposal to limit the size of individual gifts to political funds. He termed it "a sharper crackdown" on big contributions. Johnson and Knowland have collaborated in drafting what they refer to as a "clean elections" bill which 83 other senators have co-sponsored with them. They said they hope Congress will act in time to apply it to this year's presidential and congressional campaigns.

Peron Following Drops

Buenos Aires, March 15 (AP)—Juan D. Peron says he still is the big man in Argentina but the rebels who booted him out just six months ago today declare the ex-dictator's following has "declined enormously." "This nation is well on the road to restoration of democratic life," provisional President Pedro Aramburu asserted in an interview marking the half-year anniversary of the revolt which blew Peron off the pinnacle of power he had held for a decade.

Blames GOP Courage

Albany, N. Y., March 16 (AP)—Gov. Harriman declared today that, if the Legislature's Republican majorities did not raise gasoline taxes this year, "it's because they don't have the courage to do it in an election year."

Duluth, Minn., March 16 (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver says "There are ominous signs that we may be walking up to the brink again." The threat of war this time, says the Tennessee Democrat, is in North Africa and the Middle East. I think we came back by the grace of God."

The spokesman said the Turks alleged the three were caught smuggling.

Proposes Revamping Solar System—Dr. Fritz Zwicky, California Institute of Technology rocket expert, illustrates on blackboard how he envisions the planet Jupiter could be knocked out of its orbit by a rocket bomb and into an orbit "more to our liking." According to Dr. Zwicky who is shown in Pasadena, Calif., March 15, the idea would be to put Jupiter and other planets into orbits like earth's with a climate like earth's as a means of solving humanity's greatest problem—overpopulation. All this can be accomplished, he believes, through proper use of the energies released by explosion of a hydrogen bomb. (AP Wirephoto).

Financial and Commercial
New York, March 16 (AP)—The stock market ran into limited trading today with prices generally lower in the early afternoon.

The decline came after the market had surged to record heights on five of the last six sessions.

Losses in key issues were under a point in most cases. A handful of specialties was ahead around two points on favorable corporate news.

Volume was running at a somewhat slower pace than yesterday's total of 3,270,000 shares, largest of the week.

Dam Work Postponed
Washington, March 16 (AP)—Egypt has switched signals on the West and postponed the start of work on the Aswan dam. Officials who reported this today said Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser decided not to launch the $1,300,000,000 project until he reaches agreement with neighboring Sudan on how to divide the Nile river waters affected. They said they are convinced Nasser still wants to build the dam and do it with American, British and World Bank financing.

Financial and Commercial

New York, March 16 (AP)—The stock market ran into limited trading today with prices generally lower in the early afternoon.

The decline came after the market had surged to record heights on five of the last six sessions.

Losses in key issues were under a point in most cases. A handful of specialties was ahead around two points on favorable corporate news.

Volume was running at a somewhat slower pace than yesterday's total of 3,270,000 shares, largest of the week.

AN AMENDMENT to the state constitution would be required. The bill has been passed by the Senate and sent to the Assembly. It would require approval of the next Legislature before it could go to the voters.

The GOP plan to help the aging includes $2,000,000 to supplement pensions of retired teachers and retired state employees, and $4,800,000 to boost local pension contributions for teachers who retire in the future.

The program was worked out by the joint committee on problems of the aging, headed by Republican Sen. Thomas C. Desmond of Newburgh.

Action Is . . .

swamped with applications totaling more than 350 million, and asserted: "The need for housing is too great and too urgent to let political considerations interfere with the enactment of this legislation."

Slum clearance would be advanced through a five-year program of loans to local governments. The state would make 10 million available each year for the projects. A bill to carry out the program won final passage in the Assembly yesterday and was sent to Harriman.

REPUBLICAN leaders said they would push, as part of the program, legislation to:

1. Establish a "little FHA" to guarantee loans for private rehabilitation and improvement of slum tenement areas.
2. Permit limited-profit, private housing companies to spread out loan repayments and thus enable them to reduce rents.

Although the "little FHA" would be patterned after the Federal Housing Administration, which guarantees loans for new construction, the state unit would concentrate on old housing.

An amendment to the state constitution would be required. The bill has been passed by the Senate and sent to the Assembly. It would require approval of the next Legislature before it could go to the voters.

Sees Big Ike Vote

Washington, March 16 (AP)—Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa.), chairman of the GOP Congressional Campaign Committee, today predicted a big upswing in the northern Negro vote for Republicans this year. Simpson and two Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee members, Reps. Madden (Ind.) and Bennett (Fla.), disagreed with a statement by Rep. Powell (D-N.Y.) that there is "a distinct possibility" a new political party will result from the bitter battle over segregation.

Eddyville Span Reopened Today

The Eddyville bridge over the Rondout creek, closed since it was damaged in last fall's flood, was opened to traffic at 2 p. m. today.

Travel over the span will be permitted for vehicles weighing not more than 10 tons.

A pier on the south end of the span was damaged in the flood, and after soundings, it was decided that it could not be opened until repaired.

A CONCRETE shell was built around the pier. This work, started before cold weather, was interrupted when winter set in, and was recently resumed.

Masked Gunners

The 16-month-old revolt warned in Algiers: "The whole thing could blow up in our faces in a minute." Many residents of Algiers agreed with his grim appraisal.

Four attacks on Frenchmen or pro-French moslems were reported from the City of Algiers itself while the Council of the Republic, France's Senate, was meeting in Paris to endorse Mollet's program for stamping out the revolt. The reports listed no casualties but said property damage was considerable.

Authorities said French forces killed 37 rebels in 15 scattered actions yesterday in central and eastern Algeria. At least one French soldier was killed and two were wounded.

The Senate gave an overwhelming 294-7 vote of approval to the bill granting the government emergency powers for military, economic and administrative decisions. The measure was approved by the National Assembly earlier this week. Mollet has promised the Algerians that elections will be held within three months after violence is ended.

Gets Prison Term

New York, March 16 (AP)—Michael Clemente, former financial secretary and business agent of Local 856, International Longshoremen's Assn., was sentenced today to 2 1/2 to 5 years in a state prison on a perjury charge for lying to the State Crime Commission. General Sessions Judge John A. Mullen also gave Clemente an indeterminate sentence, up to three years, on a coercion charge, but suspended execution of that term.

Report Live

viruses remained in the intestinal tracts of the infected children.

The study was initiated by Lederle Laboratories, Pearl River, N. Y., and reported in the journal of the American Medical Assn.

The researchers said permission was obtained from the children's parents and from the state departments of mental hygiene and public health. Live virus had been tried previously on other human subjects.

Two virus strains, SM (type one) and TN (type two) were given in the trials.

Attenuated viruses are used in smallpox vaccine and in BCG vaccination against tuberculosis.

However, because polio viruses live in the intestinal tract and may act as a source of infection, some public health authorities have objected to their widespread use in clinical trials.

Harriman Charges GOP Makes Stall

Albany, N. Y., March 16 (AP)—Gov. Harriman has accused the Republican legislative leaders of wanting "to prevent the State Commission Against Discrimination from being an effective agency."

The Democratic governor, a possible candidate for president, noted in a special message to the legislature last night that Republican-dominated committees in both of its houses had not reported out legislation to broaden the commission's powers. He recalled that the Republican majorities had defeated Democratic motions to force a vote on the bills to permit the commission to begin investigations and regulatory action on its own motion.

Under present law, the commission may investigate only on receiving a complaint of discrimination, on account of race, color or creed, in employment, public accommodations and public and publicly assisted housing. Harriman declared:

"In these critical days it is more than ever important that New York state establish beyond question its determination to root out racial and religious discrimination wherever possible."

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, MARCH 16, 1956

ADDED EMPHASIS

In recent years the political experts have tried many times to focus attention on the need for more care in choosing vice presidential candidates. Just possibly, the circumstances of 1956 may work to further this end.

President Eisenhower is expected to win the GOP presidential nomination by acclamation. Automatically that has shifted interest to his potential running mate.

The reasons are several. Basically they center on the fact that the incumbent, Vice President Nixon, is a controversial figure both within his party and outside it.

Many Republican leaders rate him highly both as a member of the administration and as a partisan vote-getter. Polls of party officials show Nixon a commanding favorite among those who have made up their minds.

But there are doubters, too.

Some question whether he has the requisite maturity, bearing in mind the President's illness and the perhaps heightened prospect that the vice president might succeed to the higher office.

Others frankly suggest he might be a "drag" on his party's ticket because his partisan campaigning in past years has allegedly stirred the ire of Democrats and independents who might in consequence resist an urge to vote for Mr. Eisenhower.

In the end, Nixon may get the President's nod without the shadow of a difficulty.

Yet in the meantime the opposition thus expressed will serve to direct public notice to the vice presidency in a way that seldom has happened. And this is all to the good.

Conceivably, the same sort of pattern could develop in the Democratic camp. Should Adlai Stevenson build strength rapidly through significant primary gains, his nomination would begin to appear as a foregone conclusion. Once more, the focus would swing to the identity and caliber of his running mate.

To be sure, Stevenson's health does not seem to be a question mark in any important way. Nevertheless, the diminished interest in the top spot that would follow elimination of competitors would inevitably favor concentration on the second place prospects.

Especially on the Republican side, it has taken a peculiar combination of factors to bring the spotlight onto the vice presidency. But that does not matter. To have it there is progress, and that should be the concern of the experts and the ordinary citizen alike.

We must hope that 1956 will set a new pattern, that hereafter, regardless of the health or competitive position of the presidential candidates, the politicians and the voters will give full and prolonged study to the business of picking the vice presidential nominees. For they are potential presidential successors—and ought to be judged as such.

New York City has issued warrants for the arrest of 13,000 traffic violators who failed to respond to their tickets. Americans like to do everything on a big scale. Apparently this extends also to violations of the law.

NO RETURN TO GOLD YET

Seven New York financial leaders have just declared it inadvisable to return to the gold standard. They are headed by Henry P. Davison, president of J. P. Morgan & Co., and include six other heads of great banks and insurance companies. To go back to gold, they say, would not check inflationary pressure and might upset our present monetary stability.

Once a man opposing the gold standard would have been a financial heretic. The 1896 presidential campaign was won on the issue of its preservation, and the moneyed interests showed their belief in its importance by contributing lavishly to the winner's campaign fund. President Hoover once declared that during his administration the country had been almost com-

Someone got a portable television machine and during the period that I am a shut-in, it is suggested that I look at it. So to please those who want to make life on 1,500 calories cheerful, I do have a look and it is most distressing because the advertisements are so numerous and so dumb. Apparently, it is difficult to make television pay and therefore the advertisements are more numerous than on radio. Certainly they interfere more with the sequence of what one is looking at, particularly if it is a good murder. Plop right in the middle comes a female who is trying to sell something that I shall undoubtedly never buy but maybe somebody else will.

It seemed to me on the third or fourth day of looking at television that the commercials consumed more time and more of my energy than was warranted and interfered with the entertainment and I returned to a book which, good or bad, did not have any female saleswomen, all talking the same way, with the same intonations, and all selling things that certainly no man would want like stuff to keep the hair in place. It used to be rumored that there were such men in the State Department but Scott McLeod is supposed to have got rid of them. Put it as you will, I do not thrill to these females. When I want to see a murder, let me have it without being interrupted by stuff to make my skin soft or to take care of my viscera.

Presumably this is a big problem because if privately-owned television is to continue, it must depend upon excessive advertising and also it must have every program interrupted several times. It would seem that the cost of a program is so high that they have to have two or three sponsors. All of a sudden, I am told to drink beer, but beer was never my drink. Personally, I prefer wine and principally a distinguished Bordeaux. I am concentrating on a story. Not a bad story, at that. The murderer is played very well but I am sure that virtue will triumph in the end. But not I suddenly come out of my trance. I am being interested in beer—a dry beer—I am told. Who wants a dry beer? If I drink at all, I want my drink wet—very wet. This is no play on words; it is a response to stupid advertising.

When an advertisement runs in a newspaper, the reader is never startled by a jingle sung in dissonance. The advantage to the advertiser is that nobody asks why they sing out of tune or why their voices are so queer, or who wrote the text of a diverting jingle. It is possible to read the advertisement without diversion. There is a coffee whose jingle I like, but it has not influenced me to drink the coffee because all I can think about when I hear it is that the lady singer would do well in a church choir. Then I forget the name of the coffee.

The trouble with hucksters is that once they get into a pattern, they cannot get out of it. When the jingles started, they were novel and even interesting, but by now we have had them and they have become tiresome and repetitious.

Another fault I find with television is that it is absorbing like adolescent love. You have to go steady with the darn thing. For instance, I can listen to radio and read something, but with television it is different. If you look at it, you must concentrate. So the hours fly. Maybe there are millions of people who have a yearning for what is called passing the time. For them, this machine is just the right thing. They can use up hours to little advantage but pleasantly and go to bed with a clear conscience because they have not wasted their time in idle conversation as to whether Nixon will or should be the next Vice President, as futile a discussion as whether the Communist 20th Congress changed anything.

Somewhat, I have missed any intellectual programs. They must come at hours when I am not available. I shall search some out to discover how a profound discussion is interrupted by a female selling a mattress.

That Body of Yours

WHAT IS A VIRUS?

The exact definition of a virus is difficult to state. Is it a living organism or is it a pure chemical, no more alive than salt crystal? It seems to fit either description, like a strange something that exists in a shadowy world between life and no-life. A virus behaves like a living chemical.

How big is a virus? Most viruses are too small to be seen under ordinary microscopes. They pass easily through fine porcelain filters that hold back bacteria. The largest viruses, however, are as big as the smallest bacteria. The smallpox vaccination scar you may bear on your arm or elsewhere was caused by a virus known as vaccinia, just big enough to be seen under a microscope. However, the great majority of viruses are so tiny that they were never seen until the electron microscope was invented. The head of a pin holds 25,000,000 polio viruses with ease. A virus has the power of self-duplication. It can reproduce itself and this is distinctively a property of living things. This would seem to prove that viruses are living organisms and yet some have been isolated in pure crystal form containing no water and seem to be as unalive as granite.

Another strange fact makes viruses very different from bacteria: viruses multiply only inside living cells. They cannot live on sugars or meat broth or other foods that bacteria thrive upon. Also, a virus is very fussy about the cell it attacks. The cells of human bodies give the polio virus exactly the foods that please it. The cells of a cat do no such thing. Cats do not have polio but they have other virus diseases that never bother human beings.

It is said that we are boarding-houses for viruses practically all our lives. Ever have a plain, ordinary cold sore? It is caused by a virus that constantly inhabits the bodies of most people from infancy to old age. Most of the time you don't know you have it. Once in a while when your resistance is low, although this is a very vague explanation, the virus gets the upper hand and a cold sore breaks out. It disappears in a few days but the cold sore virus does not vanish with the cold sore. It goes back into hiding in your body. Some of the important virus diseases that afflict men are: chicken-pox (a children's disease thought to be the same virus causing "shingles" in adults); cold sores; common cold; German measles; polio; influenza; measles; mumps; parrot fever (a virus disease of birds which can be caught by man); rabies (a virus disease of dogs likewise transmissible to man); shingles; sleeping sickness; smallpox; warts; and yellow fever. We have not as yet a miracle drug that would cure these diseases by a direct attack on viruses, as antibiotics attack bacteria, but the search for it is going on in laboratories all over the world today and research workers feel hopeful that such a drug will be found.

"Is He Going Up or Going Down?"

Edson's Washington News Notebook

BY PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington —(NEA)— Clarence E. Manion, former dean of Notre Dame Law School and now co-chairman of the "For America" right wing political movement, is having his little revenge.

Dismissed from a high government commission post by President Eisenhower in 1954, Dean Manion is now promoting an involved plan to elect an "All-American" instead of an "internationalist-minded" president in November.

In the latest of a series of Sunday night broadcasts in which he has been outlining his plan, Dean Manion declared that "The Republican party is dead. It has ceased to exist as an opponent of the Democrat 'welfare state'."

This will probably come as a great surprise to GOP National Chairman Leonard Hall, who has been counting on electing Eisenhower in a landslide. Manion hopes to stop it.

DEAN MANION told this reporter that the real reason both Republicans and Democrats set their nominating conventions in late August was to prevent any other political movements from having time to organize opposition third parties.

But the Manion plan is intended to overcome this, too.

In essence, Manion calls on voters to cast their ballots for slates of unpledged presidential electors in the November elections. He says movements are already under way in several states to get them on the ballots.

As anyone who has ever cast a ballot in a presidential election knows, he doesn't vote directly for the presidential candidate. He votes for electors. There are 531 of them—one for every U. S. senator and representative.

The electoral college then meets in December and elects the president inaugurated the following January.

IT MUST BE REMEMBERED says Dean Manion, that:

"Any presidential elector elected in November has the legal right to vote for whomever he pleases, regardless of the party or person to whom he was pledged. This is the master key to any plan to elect pro-American electors in 1956."

It takes 266 or more electoral votes to elect a president. Dean Manion is not proposing that 266 unpledged electors can be elected in November. But he does believe that enough independent electors could be chosen to prevent either of the major party candidates—say Eisenhower or Stevenson—from getting the necessary 266 electoral college majority.

In this situation, the Constitution says that the president shall be elected by the House of Representatives, with each state delegation having one vote. It would take 25 or more state votes to name the president.

DEAN MANION BELIEVES that say 13 southern states and a dozen or more mid-western farm states, with a total House membership of around 100, could elect a president. They would have more power in this special election than the other 23 more populous northern and eastern states, with a total House membership of over 300.

The "For America" movement announced earlier in the year that it favored Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif) for the presidency. Dean Manion says now that, "This is not the time to pick our All-America candidate for a president."

He says there are many governors and congressmen, "American to the core," who would do. The trouble is they are now frozen in the existing party organizations. They would be "old pros" if they were to endorse independent, pro-American electors.

Dean Manion thinks things will be different after the Nov. 6 elections. Then the third group of independent electors can speak out.

Make sure that the water in the lower part of your double boiler does not touch the top part of the boiler when you are preparing a custard sauce. Keep the water simmering—not boiling.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

I hope my friends in Dixieland will excuse me, but they remind me of one of Jack Curley's wrestlers in the good old days who had a habit of clamping toe holds on himself and howling in agony as he twisted and twisted. My friends in Dixieland all are Democrats and the Democratic party is the party which promoted "integration" of white and colored persons and built up the monopolistic strength of the union rackets which have been repeating in the south their Ku Klux riots which dragged down millions of northerners into the CIO and AF of L 20 years ago.

The integration riots on the campus of the University of Alabama have received resounding publicity all over the world and especially in the majestic thunder-sheets of New York, but they were trivial by comparison with the violent union insurrections which swept the south less than a year ago.

Some of my southern friends tried to quit the Democratic party in 1952 when they plumped for General Eisenhower. I told them and told them that Eisenhower was no more Republican than Adlai Stevenson but they had to learn the hard way. Now, even those few are off Eisenhower because, for the principal reason, Dick Nixon boasted that a Republican chief justice, Earl Warren, was the one who wrote the "integration" decision. Of course, Warren is no more Republican than Ike, but he has "passed" for Republican for many years just as Walter White, the late pallid boss of the

Cyprus Resolution Regarded As Encroachment on Britain

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Mar. 16—Cyprus is an integral part of Great Britain. There is no more reason for the United States to interfere in the internal affairs of Great Britain than there would be for the British to interpose any objection to what is being done by this country in its policies toward the islands of Puerto Rico or Hawaii.

Yet eighteen United States Senators—twelve Democrats and six Republicans—have intruded in the most delicate kind of a matter of foreign policy in the Mediterranean which is difficult enough for the State Department to deal with anyhow. Now the British government and the British people are rightly indignant over such unwarranted interposition.

NOT SO LONG ago some of these same Senators were denouncing a Wisconsin Senator because he tried to persuade some Greek ship owners to stop smuggling strategic goods to the Communists and it was argued then that he was encroaching on the executive branch of the United States government. The resolution sponsored by the eighteen senators, however, goes farther than anything Sen. McCarthy ever did and endangers as well the good relations between America and Britain.

The proposed resolution in the Senate asks the United States government to say to the British government that it must give up its territory of Cyprus. The argument is that "four-fifths of the people of Cyprus are Greeks by language, culture, church, tradition and affection."

On that same basis, Poland might claim certain American cities because there are more Poles in our big cities than there are in Warsaw. Likewise, if population is a criterion, there are more Jews in America than in Palestine. Mere quantity of persons with a cultural or other tie to some foreign land has never been a justifiable basis for changing the legal relationship between a sovereign nation and its citizens unless, of course, such a nation voluntarily decided to relinquish control as America did in the Philippines.

THE SAME senatorial proposal criticizes Britain for the use of force, and yet subversion inside Cyprus is notorious. What possible justification can eighteen American senators have for reprimanding Britain for its use of force when it is the right of every sovereign nation to suppress rebellion within its borders? America repeatedly suppressed revolt in the Philippines in the early part of this century.

The official text of the announcement, made by the British government last week when it reported the Greek Archbishop Makarios, told of acts of violence instigated by the archbishop. It said in part:

"While overtly and apparently in good faith conducting negotiations for a political settlement of the island's future, the archbishop has surreptitiously encouraged and abetted the terrorists in order to improve his bargaining position in the negotiations."

THE BRITISH governor in Cyprus decided to deport the archbishop "in the light not only of his overt activities but also of a large volume of evidence indicating that the archbishop has himself been deeply implicated in the campaign of terrorism."

The archbishop himself was caught in the act of dealing with subversive organizations and his official residence was used "for the temporary storage of arms and grenades."

When the Greek archbishop was deported the press was filled with statements alleging that the American government was "shocked" at the action taken by the British and hinting that the State Department felt he was being mistreated. There is not the slightest foundation for such an impression. The United States Department of State expressed no protest and merely said it didn't know of the step in advance. Nor is it necessary for the British to notify the State Department whenever a British official takes security measures in a territory under British control.

THE ISLAND of Cyprus is important as a strategic base in the Mediterranean. The Communists have worked in league with the terrorists in Cyprus. This activity is part of the cold war.

There are many places in the world where nationalist movements are in progress, but strangely enough the "left wing" of today become involved in pleas to end colonial rule in the very areas where Allied military strength is thereupon weakened. The Communist effort to wrest North Africa and the Mediterranean bases from the western world is aided and abetted by "many Americans who cry 'colonialism' but at the same time denounce the United States if he dares to mention the peaceful 'liberation' of the eastern European peoples who really had their independence at one time and were deprived of it by the Communists, as in Czechoslovakia, Poland, Hungary, Bulgaria, Romania, Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia. (Reproduction rights reserved) major politician now in practice with a record as encroaching on that vote. Truman went further than Dewey in his efforts but he was unable to deliver as efficiently and the white southern Democrats will find little consolation in the fact that he dumped Truman in 1952 in favor of Dewey's man, Ike. Dewey killed a fair employment bill when he was governor not because he opposed it but because it was a "project" of the Democrats. Having done that, he put over a commission against discrimination, cultivated individual Negro political bosses and scattered important jobs with a prodigality which relieved the incurable chill of his personality.

The dismal truth of the southern white Democrat's political state today is that his own party did him in. The northern Republican, of whatever race, also is a man without a party but for another reason. There just isn't any Republican party now.

All this serves the white southern Democrat right. He had no principles nor any motive but sordid greed in traipsing down the road with Roosevelt. When he should have been heeding discourses of debauchery in the White House and venality among his own political agents in the long Democratic reign in Washington, his only reaction was that the complaining witnesses probably were smarting from their latest tanning at the hands of the internal revenue.

The southern press scoffed at factual proof of the union rackets which are now blackmailing the grand new expansion of southern industry and economy. In general, the south has been the author of its own misfortunes. It is a ludicrous, not heartrending yowl that fills the air as the south twists away at its own foot.

Leave that learn them. (Copyright, 1956, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Stiff Sentences Are Given Drug Peddlers

New York, March 16 (AP)—A general sessions court judge has given two narcotics peddlers what he termed the "stiffest" sentences ever meted out for first convictions under the present anti-narcotics laws.

Judge John A. Mullen yesterday sentenced Nathan Berman, 42, of (64-34 102 street) Rego Park, Queens, to 19 to 20 years, and Anthony Velucci, 31, of Manhattan to 14 to 15 years in state prison.

But Mullen stayed execution of sentencing for a week, indicating the men might profit by "singing" about the dope racket.

Berman and Velucci were arrested last November with more than 30 pounds of heroin in their possession, worth about $3 million in the illicit retail market.

The pair interrupted their trial last Feb. 7 to plead guilty to charges of possession of narcotics and possession with intent to sell.

Mullen told the prisoners: "We are dealing here with the largest amount of drugs ever recovered in the United States. People like you make the money while poor devils ruin their lives. This is trading in human misery."

After the sentencing, Berman flushed angrily and said:

"Give me 100 years! What do I care? Why should I plead and then get 20 years?"

Both Berman and Velucci have records of previous convictions but not for narcotics peddling.

February Record Month on Thruway

Albany, N. Y., March 16 (AP)—Commercial revenue on the state thruway reached a record $427,938.20 last month.

Total toll revenue in the same period was $1,066,500.76. B. D. Tallamy, Thruway Authority chairman, announced today.

This was augmented by the sale of 12,204 annual $20 permits, which raised to 44,998 the number of such permits issued for 1956 use. The total for all of last year was 40,212.

The previous high for commercial revenue was $427,056, collected in October, 1955.

Briefly Told

Ithaca, N. Y., March 16 (AP)—Mohawk Airlines announced yesterday the purchase of seven Convair 240 transports from Swissair.

The contract signed at Zurich, Switzerland, Monday called also for delivery of nine overhauled engines, nine propellers and about $500,000 worth of spare parts. The price was not disclosed.

Delivery is to begin in August and be completed by Dec. 1.

Washington, March 16 (AP)—New York's two senators divided on party lines yesterday in the 45-44 vote by which the Senate defeated an amendment to take a dual parity system out of the farm bill.

Republican Sen. Irving M. Ives voted against the dual parity system and Democratic Sen. Herbert H. Lehman favored it.

Syracuse, N. Y., March 16 (AP)—Two milk-producer cooperatives have asked the secretary of agriculture to extend the upcoming New York city milk hearings to include major urban areas upstate.

The Metropolitan Milk Producers Bargaining Agency and the Dairymen's League made the proposal yesterday in a petition to Ezra Taft Benson. They asked that all major urban areas upstate not now covered by federal or state orders be considered at the hearing which will take up revision of the present federal order for the New York city area.

The Buffalo and Rochester areas now are covered by state regulations.

Washington, March 16 (AP)—An official of the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science has cited Oneida, N. Y., as an example of an increase in the study of science in high schools.

John R. Mayor, director of the association's science teaching improvement program, said in a study released by the association yesterday that chemistry enrollments at Oneida had increased by 2½ times in three years.

Syracuse, N. Y., March 16 (AP)—A five-year-old boy, object of an extensive search yesterday, was safely back with his parents today. He was discovered, fast asleep, in a basement window well.

Hundreds of persons canvassed a fashionable neighborhood for five hours before John Byrne was discovered late last night. The boy suffered a bruised cheek but no other ill effects when he fell into the window well of a next-door neighbor's house. The neighbor's daughter discovered him.

John is the grandson of J. P. Byrne, wealthy Syracuse tire dealer.

C. Trautwein is organist of the New Paltz Church, while George Meyer is organist in Lloyd and Plutarch Churches. The New Paltz and Plutarch choirs will sing, under the direction of Robert Brearey and Mrs. George Traver, respectively.

Of all benefits paid by Equitable last year, over 70% went to Living policyholders

An important message from a pioneer of Living Insurance

Once you've said something, it's always good to be able to prove it.

Equitable has long held that the function of Living Insurance is to stress benefits for you and your family while you live — as well as for those who live on after you.

The proof of this dynamic concept is shown by the figures for 1955. During that year, Equitable disbursed $597,000,000 in benefits. But of greater importance to you is the fact that over 70% of that amount — or $422,000,000 — went to living policyholders, people who didn't have to die to win. And today they lead richer lives as a result of the funds that Equitable provided for family and retirement incomes, children's education, medical, business and financial emergencies.

This is Living Insurance in action — and naturally Equitable is proud of its role in bringing more financial security to more and more Americans.

We are proud, too, of the annual statement shown below, which indicates the kind of confidence you can have in the Man from Equitable when he tells you how Living Insurance fits your life and needs.

Babson Discusses Uranium
Babson Park, Mass., March 16 — Readers are still being pestered by Canadian brokers to buy uranium stocks. News items about building reactors on college campuses keep up the interest. From studies, I believe that your money, if put in savings banks, can be both safer and more profitable than if put into a speculative clay bank.

URANIUM WILL have its uses, but for many years these will be confined to military purposes, especially in connection with ammunition, shipping, guided missiles, and movable electrical plants. Uranium, however, is subject to many competitors, including water power, oil, natural gas, and cheap coal. These other natural resources will hold down the price of uranium, especially in view of its great quantity all over the world. The main thing for the oil and gas people to fear is legislative persecution such as the electrical utilities suffered under Roosevelt. The recent action of the U. S. Senate, however, in connection with the natural gas bill, shows that there is no reason to fear such destructive legislation at present.

Probably the first competitor that all these natural power resources will face is the unused power from the sun. This has tremendous possibilities and will some day be harnessed. Looking ahead many years, I see much more profit in buying properly located land in Florida, Texas, Arizona, New Mexico and southern California, where the heat of the sun is great, than in buying land in Colorado, Utah, or somewhere else with the hope of getting uranium.

GRANDPA USED gravity to help regulate his tall clock; later it was used to develop power from falling water. There are other uses for gravity, though they are very few at present. Yet, when we think of the tremendous unused power of the ocean tides, we realize the possibility of harnessing gravity. Today gravity power is where steam power was 200 years ago. Men of that era knew steam would lift the cover of a kettle; but no one knew how to harness

it. For details, write Gravity Research Foundation, New Boston, N. H.

The secret of harnessing most power is to have a "differential" which will enable the power to work in opposite directions. The great work of Watt's in harnessing steam was to devise the reciprocal engine, which provided a differential, permitting the steam to automatically enter opposite ends of the cylinder of his engine. This means that the harnessing of gravity may await the discovery of a partial insulator of gravity—probably some new alloy. As there are millions of different alloys which have not yet been tested, it is probable that a partial insulator of gravity will be discovered.

AS YOU READ THIS column, do you realize that you are moving at the rate of 1,000 miles per hour? (The world is approximately 24,000 miles in circumference and the day consists of 24 hours.) This revolution offers the greatest opportunity for free power. Furthermore, it will need a differential in order to be harnessed. The most hopeful thing is that most physicists, astronomers and other scientists agree that they do not know what makes the world revolve! They do not accept seriously the standard theory that—like a baseball—our globe was sent twirling when it was thrown off from the sun or some other planet and has been twirling for billions of years ever since.

In view of experiments with toy meters, where the revolving armature has no electrical connection with the magnetic field, another theory is possible. This is, that the interior of our globe consists of some new metals or alloys making it the rotor of a great meter. The field of this meter is the electrical waves coming from the sun and other planets or generated by the clouds. Thomas Edison told me that more static electricity is used in one thunderstorm than is produced each day by all the power companies in the U. S. When this static electricity can be harnessed, I forecast that every factory will have a large revolving globe on its roof which will furnish power, light and heat for the factory without cost, or without the consumption of our natural resources. For further details write Babson Institute, Babson Park 57, Mass. Therefore, don't put too much money into any one thing, uranium, oil, natural gas, water power, or even gravity! The first principle of successful investing is proper diversification.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

King-Jack Play Is Bridge Basic

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

It's hard to believe that today's hand was misplayed by one of the best known bridge players in the country. He disregarded a basic principle of correct play. He may not be the only one, so perhaps a little discussion of that principle will help.

Your problem is to limit the trump loss to one trick. You're bound to lose both red aces. How should you play the trumps? Assume that you cannot see the cards held by the opponents. What is the correct theoretical play?

The correct play is to finesse the jack rather than to play the king. The advantage is small, but even a small advantage is better than none.

Suppose that each opponent has two trumps. You must guess whether to play the king or the jack. One guess is just as good as another, in the long run.

Suppose that the trumps are 3-1. The finesse of the jack will often succeed only if West has the singleton queen.

There is also the chance that East has all of the trumps, in which case it is surely better to finesse the jack than to put up the king.

It's true that you are occasionally doomed to failure no matter what you do, since West will sometimes have both the ace and queen. It's also true that one guess is about as good as another if the high cards are divided between the two opponents. The big advantage of playing the jack is that East may have both high trumps.

If you always finesse the pack whenever you have a situation of this kind, you will be far better off in the long run than the

The Mature Parent

What We Praise in a Child, We Are Demanding of Him

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Every day at 5 p. m., TV was the subject of squabbling between Walter and his little sister. Dot demanded the adventures of Prince Trueheart, a puppet; Walter insisted on his program of animated cartoons. So their mother tried to settle their conflict by alternating each child's turn.

Tuesday was Dot's afternoon. Her mother was on the telephone, and four-year-old Dot tried to tune in Prince Trueheart for herself. The result was such bedlam that the mother called, "Walter! For goodness sake, get Dot's program for her before she breaks the TV set."

Walter obeyed, tuning in a perfect reception of his sister's program. Hanging up the phone, his mother kissed him enthusiastically. And praising his quick helpfulness rather extravagantly, continued to mention it all the evening.

After that, Walter tuned in Prince Trueheart every afternoon, showing no interest in his cartoon program.

Did he suddenly develop a preference for puppet shows? No. Does he love Dot so that satisfaction in her pleasure outweighs satisfaction of his own? No. Walter was tuning in his little sister's program for one reason only—to get more of his mother's praise for his "helpfulness."

An alert woman, she realized this later and corrected Walter's belief that his self-effacement was helpful. "Dot must learn to share, too," she said. "How can she learn it if you don't ask anything for yourself? Go in to her now and tell her that it's your afternoon for cartoons."

And later she made a special point of praising the promptness with which her son reassured his rights. Because what we praise has such far-reaching influence on children's development, I can never understand the child guidance people's wholesale endorsement of its goodness. It can be anything but good.

Fagin in Dickens' "Oliver Twist," for example made criminals out of his boys by praising their skill in stealing. In the Bible, old Jacob's blind and dotting praise of his son Joseph exposed the boy to the persecution and plotting of his jealous brothers.

What we praise in a child, we demand from him. To get our praise, he will pretend to be anything we want.

Medina Furniture Factory Fire Loss

Medina, N. Y., March 16 (AP)—A spectacular fire destroyed a three-story brick furniture factory in this western New York village yesterday afternoon.

Nearly 100 firemen from Medina and several nearby communities battled the flames which wrecked the Authentic Furniture Co.

The blaze, fanned by east winds, raged out of control for more than three hours threatening to spread to nearby dwellings.

About 25 employees were cleared from the building after the fire was first discovered at 1:15 p. m.

No injuries were reported, but damage was estimated at more than $100,000. The cause was not determined.

Firemen prevented the blaze from spreading by soaking down adjacent buildings, but two families were evacuated as a precautionary measure.

The factory was erected in 1894 and employed about 40 persons.

Dulles, Chiang Confer on China Defense Plans

Taipei, Formosa, March 16 (AP) — U. S. Secretary of State Dulles and President Chiang Kai-shek conferred here today on joint defense of Nationalist China against Communist aggression.

Continuing his far eastern tour, Dulles arrived from Manila and soon after was driven to the generalissimo's home in the suburbs of Taipei. The two leaders talked there for more than an hour.

LATER DULLES and his party returned for a formal dinner given for them by Chiang and his wife.

Dulles in an airport statement on his arrival described this meeting with the Nationalist president as another consultative one provided for in the mutual defense treaty between their two governments. The treaty is concerned mainly with American protection of Formosa.

Chiang was assumed to have urged that the United States give an open commitment to protect the Nationalist-held offshore islands of Quemoy and the Matus. There was no indication, however, that this plea had scored with Dulles. The U. S. government so far has said only that it would counter any invasion threat to Formosa and the Pescadores.

Roger Dordick First In Speaking Contest

Saugerties, March 16—Roger Dordick was the first place winner of the Cantine Memorial speaking contest held at Saugerties Central High School Wednesday evening before a comparatively small audience of 50 persons.

John Wey won the second place prize of $15; James Sandner and James Erceg were runner-up winners of $10 each. The first place prize was $25.

The topic under discussion was "The Federal Government should sustain the prices of major agricultural products at a higher percentage of parity than at present."

The judges were Frank J. Sullivan, Mrs. Elizabeth O'Rourke and Roland Cormier from Hudson High School faculty.

Preceding the panel discussion

Inconsistent

to determine whether he or Eckert is supervisor, "it would be inconsistent for me to represent Ellsworth and the town board," Schick said.

An offer made Wednesday to settle the financial tangle of the town and permit payment of payroll checks and other financial obligations of the town by the town availing itself of Section 42 of the Town Law, had been declined by counsel for Eckert, Schick said.

A proposal was made that a "neutral" deputy supervisor be named by the board to act until the courts can determine the controversy. That proposal was flatly rejected and consequently the town funds remain frozen. Schick said that Ellsworth had requested him to proceed with the action to determine whether the town board was acting correctly when it declared a vacancy existed and appointed Ellsworth supervisor to fill the vacancy, or whether Eckert was correct in his act of revoking his resignation after it had been submitted to the town clerk.

The attorney general will be requested to act under a "quo warranto" proceeding, Schick said, to determine whether the appointment of Ellsworth is valid.

April Proclaimed For Cancer Control

Washington, March 16 (AP) — President Eisenhower today designated April as cancer control month and urged the American people to "unite in public dedication" to programs for control of the disease.

In a proclamation, the President said "the health and welfare of our nation suffer seriously from the impact of cancer in loss of lives, distress and incapacitation of our citizens, and the lessening of our productivity in the amount of billions of dollars."

Eisenhower said substantial gains have been made in the battle against the disease, but it still is important "that we aid in the attack on cancer by vigorously supporting the official agencies and voluntary groups engaged in research to increase our knowledge of cancer and in programs for the application of this knowledge to the end that the disease may be controlled and eventually eradicated."

Housewives Asked To Help Design Work Saver Home

New York, March 16 (AP) — American housewives of middle income families were asked yesterday to help the federal government in establishing improved design standards of typical homes that will keep pace with the rapidly changing mode of contemporary living.

Albert M. Cole, administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, said during an interview that his agency wants the housewives to send letters to the HHA expressing their views and wants on new modern homes that will "work for them" and keep pace with development of technological improvements designed to make the homemaker's job easier.

HE ANNOUNCED that his agency plans to call a "congress of American housewives" in Washington probably by the end of April to meet with his agency, other government agency representatives and private industry experts to discuss the future course of home design.

"The American home building industry is in transition," he said. "Gone are days when acute need for more shelter was the chief factor in the purchase of a house. Gradually we have entered an era of highly selective buying—an era in which the buyer will speak with ever-increasing vigor and effect about what his family wants and expects to find in a new home."

HOME BUILDERS, manufacturers, realtors, lenders and the government can not go forward on the basis of well-meaning opinions and untested theories," Cole said. "They need hard facts."

A women's congress on housing may help provide these facts, he said.

Cole said that some of the women selected to attend the housing conference will be chosen from among those writing to his agency, and others may be nominated by various civic and trade organizations. He stressed, however, that those nominated by organizations would appear merely on an individual basis and not as organization representatives.

THE HOUSEWIVES, he said, would receive per diem expenses of $12 plus travelling expenses to be paid by the HHA during the two to three-day Washington meeting.

Cole noted that the 10 million houses built since World War 2 represent an investment in excess of 100 billion dollars. "In the decade ahead the American people will invest at least another 100 billion in new homes," he said. "The government does not propose to be partner to a 100-billion-dollar mistake."

He said he felt that the ideas and recommendations which may come out of the Washington conference will have an impact not only on modern home design but on the building industry, the American people, and his agency. He said he believed that inasmuch as his agency examines its minimum building requirements every six months, that the conference probably will result in a re-evaluation of the agency's regulations and activities.

Double Honesty

Beaver Dam, Ky. (AP) — Filling station operator Jimmy Peters received a dime in the mail from a woman who explained she forgot to pay for two soft drinks. Peters mailed the dime back, told her he knew she had forgotten and that he added the 10 cents to the gas bill.

REGAINING HER YOUTH — Mrs. Eugenia Frazier celebrates her 90th birthday by climbing a maple tree near her home in Springfield, Vt. On past birthdays, Mrs. Frazier has tried to make up for her "misspent youth," as she says, by roller skating, skipping rope, riding a sled and bicycling.

"NOTHING DOIN'" — There are only 52 weeks in the calendar year, but there are scores and scores of special "days," "weeks" and "months." They range from Odorous Decoration Week (Jan. 1-7) through American Fresh-Water Pearl Month (June 1-30) to Holiday Butter Cookie Time (Dec. 1-31). Mayor James Morgan, of Birmingham, Ala., got tired of all that. So he has just added another of his own—"Nothing Week." He proclaimed it and decided to do nothing that week. Nothing doing. He had to work. Newspapers called him from all over the United States to get stories. He had to answer scads of letters from people who liked the idea of a week dedicated to nothing at all. In fact, he's weak from his Nothing Week labors. Above, he's pictured, right, in his office, as he hoped it would be. With him are, left to right, Mrs. James Evans and Nancy Traynor, secretaries, and Clinton Bishop, mayor's executive aide.

Think It Through

By EDWARD F. HUTTON ARE WE?

Officially, we are now recognizing Communist governments, including Russia.

Khrushchev will continue to blast our breach of diplomatic etiquette whenever we talk about freedom for captive countries.

Why not pull the diplomatic rug from under this Kremlin gang by withdrawing recognition of all Communist governments? Let's take this step on moral principles; and proclaim to the world this message: "The United States has a Constitutional Government with rights derived from God, who gave liberty for all men. We believe that lawful governments exist only with the consent of the governed. Hence the U.S.S.R. is an unlawful government which we do not wish to recognize."

That would make our acts consistent with the President's statement. We stand for peaceful liberation of captive peoples. All right, then let's suit our actions to our principles.

What would the Soviet do if we did that? They would have their hands full with the revolutionary shock that would run up and down the spine of their whole slave empire. It would give hope to the slaves.

Years ago, we broke off recognition of Bulgaria because that Communist, gangster government harassed our diplomats in that country.

It's a notorious fact that the Soviet Government is an immoral, criminal fraud. The right American deed to activate the President's words on liberation would be to expose this criminal Kremlin fraud.

This, neighbor, would be a second "shot heard around the world."

A DINNER FOR THE DEPARTMENT HEAD

A reader explains: "The man who was head of our department was recently promoted to a higher position in the company. In honor of the occasion, all of the employees in the department got together and gave a dinner for him at one of the hotels. The cost of the dinner was shared by the employees but no liquor was included. Anyone who wanted a cocktail ordered it at the bar. To show his appreciation, during the course of the evening Mr. A. ordered two bottles of liquor to be on the table as his 'treat' and paid for it himself. Some of the office members feel that since the party was given for him he should not be allowed to pay for the liquor and I understand that the men are splitting the cost of it and are going to reimburse him for it. I think it would be very wrong for them to do this and that it will hurt his feelings terribly. What is your opinion?"

Since it was his spontaneous wish to treat those giving him the dinner, I agree with you that no attempt should be made to reimburse him other than with your thanks.

Rising for Clergyman

Dear Mrs. Post: Recently you wrote in your column that it is courteous for a young person to rise when greeting a clergyman. Please tell me the proper thing to do when a woman greets a clergyman who is approximately the same age. I mean if she is already seated and the clergyman enters the room and stops and shakes hands.

Answer: Unless you are infirm it would be courteous to get up out of respect for his cloth.

Present for New House Owner

Dear Mrs. Post: A woman who has moved into a new house has invited a group of us with whom she works to come to her place to spend the evening. We'd like to know if it is necessary to take a present for her house?

Answer: It would be very nice to take something if you would like to, but it is not an exaction.

CWV to Sponsor Contest for Local Senior Students

St. Ignatius Loyola, Post 1769, Catholic War Veterans of Kingston, New York, has joined with the Department of New York Catholic War Veterans in sponsoring an "Honor Boy Contest."

This contest is based on the following four categories: Reverence, Character, Leadership, Scholarship.

Each boy is to submit an essay of 500 words on "My Place as a Catholic in the United States."

A good reason for this essay is to bring out the character and sincerity in the boys' qualifications at the same time it will help the panel of judges get a better view of the boys' aims in life and also help in the questionnaire.

A panel of judges has been selected consisting of four laymen and one member of the clergy not connected with CWV in any way. This contest is open to one Catholic boy from each church in the city of Kingston as selected by the pastor of the church. The boy must be a senior in high school.

The churches entering the contest in Kingston are Immaculate Conception, St. Mary's, St. Joseph's, St. Peter's and Holy Name.

Information gathered of the boy chosen will be forwarded to the panel for determination of the local winner. The panel will consist of William J. O'Reilly, the Rev. Joseph Comyns of Mt. St. Alphonsus, Dr. Vincent P. Amatrano, Albert C. Flanagan and Attorney Andrew J. Cook, Jr.

Interest in the Honor Boy Contest, which will close locally on March 26, is running very high among the local pastors and among the Catholic War Veteran Post members.

Clintondale Blood Bank Now Formed

Plattekill, March 16 — The formation of Clintondale Methodist Blood Assurance Committee was announced by the Rev. John E. Swords, chairman.

"We as a committee are stimulated by the Blood Banks Association of New York state plan and it is initiated through the Community Service Committee of Plattekill Grange for southern Ulster county area and adjacent communities in Orange county," the Rev. Mr. Swords said.

"This new civilian two-year old program warrants our interest for it is a unique and different blood program ever developed. It is completely unselfish and non-profit making. No one stands to benefit from it financially. Only the participating individuals profit in the event of their need for blood," added the minister.

Serving on the committee include Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smalley, Fred Atkins, Mrs. Walter Beatty, Donald Williamson and Marlene Palmer.

The proclamation of Supervisor Wilkin declared that "the Township of Plattekill is in enthusiastic accord with the worthwhile objectives of the Blood Assurance Program and wishes to take official cognizance of the need for fresh whole blood for many patients."

Supervisor also noted that "the Town Board of Plattekill, by resolution adopted Feb. 8 1956 has endorsed the plan of the Blood Assurance Association of New York state believing that it benefits the health of the proper of the Township of Plattekill, particularly in emergencies."

By virtue of the authority contained in this resolution, Supervisor Wilkin is urging all residents in township of Plattekill and inviting adjacent neighboring towns beyond the township and county line to become thoroughly familiar with the Blood Assurance Plan so that all who desire may actively join and become eligible for its benefits.

"The township line and the county line is not a divisory line for this project," added the supervisor, "and our neighbors are welcome to participate and assure themselves of four pints of blood for themselves and four pints of blood for each and every member of the immediate family."

Clarkstown Eliminates Saugerties From Tourney, 71-64

Hanna Great In Losing Cause, Scoring 36 Points

Orlando, Bayer Pace Rams to Final Round

Despite a magnificent 36-point effort by Bill Hanna, Saugerties High School was eliminated from the Class B Section Nine Tournament by sharpshooting Clarkstown Central, 71-64, last night at the Middletown High gym.

The rangy dark-haired guard played a whale of a game and at one stretch scored 16 straight points for the Sawyers. He had the estimated 1000 fans gasping in disbelief as he drove in for baskets and hit from outside for 30 points in the second half in a desperate effort to lift his team in the tourney finals.

Unfortunately for Saugerties, Hanna got little scoring support from his mates. Only Joe Martin cracked double figures (13), while the rest of the squad managed just 11 points.

HANNA'S OUTPUT is believed to be a new SHS record. According to Charlie Gilmore, Saugerties official scorer, the total is tops for a Sawyer player in at least the last five seasons.

Much to the regret of Saugerties, Clarkstown had an expert marksman on its side in the person by Artie Orlando. The crew-cut operative was the hero, with 34 points for the night to bring his two-game tourney total to 65.

GEORGE BAYER helped send the Rams further ahead, scoring 19 points, while playing a smooth floor game and leading the rebounding. Don Kay kicked in when 10 points, four coming in crucial spots near the end.

Clarkstown, which meets Haverstraw High for the crown Saturday night, only outshot the UCAL runners-up 29-28. From the foul line, the Rockland county crew hit 13 of 21 to 8 for 13.

Offensively, it was perhaps the best game seen in the area this season. Both teams exhibited remarkable shooting skill, particularly in the closing half.

THE RAMS took an early lead and never relinquished it. With Orlando setting the pace, they rocketed to an 18-9 margin in the first quarter as the Sawyers failed to find the range. From then on Saugerties outscored their rivals 55-53, but couldn't make up for the slow start.

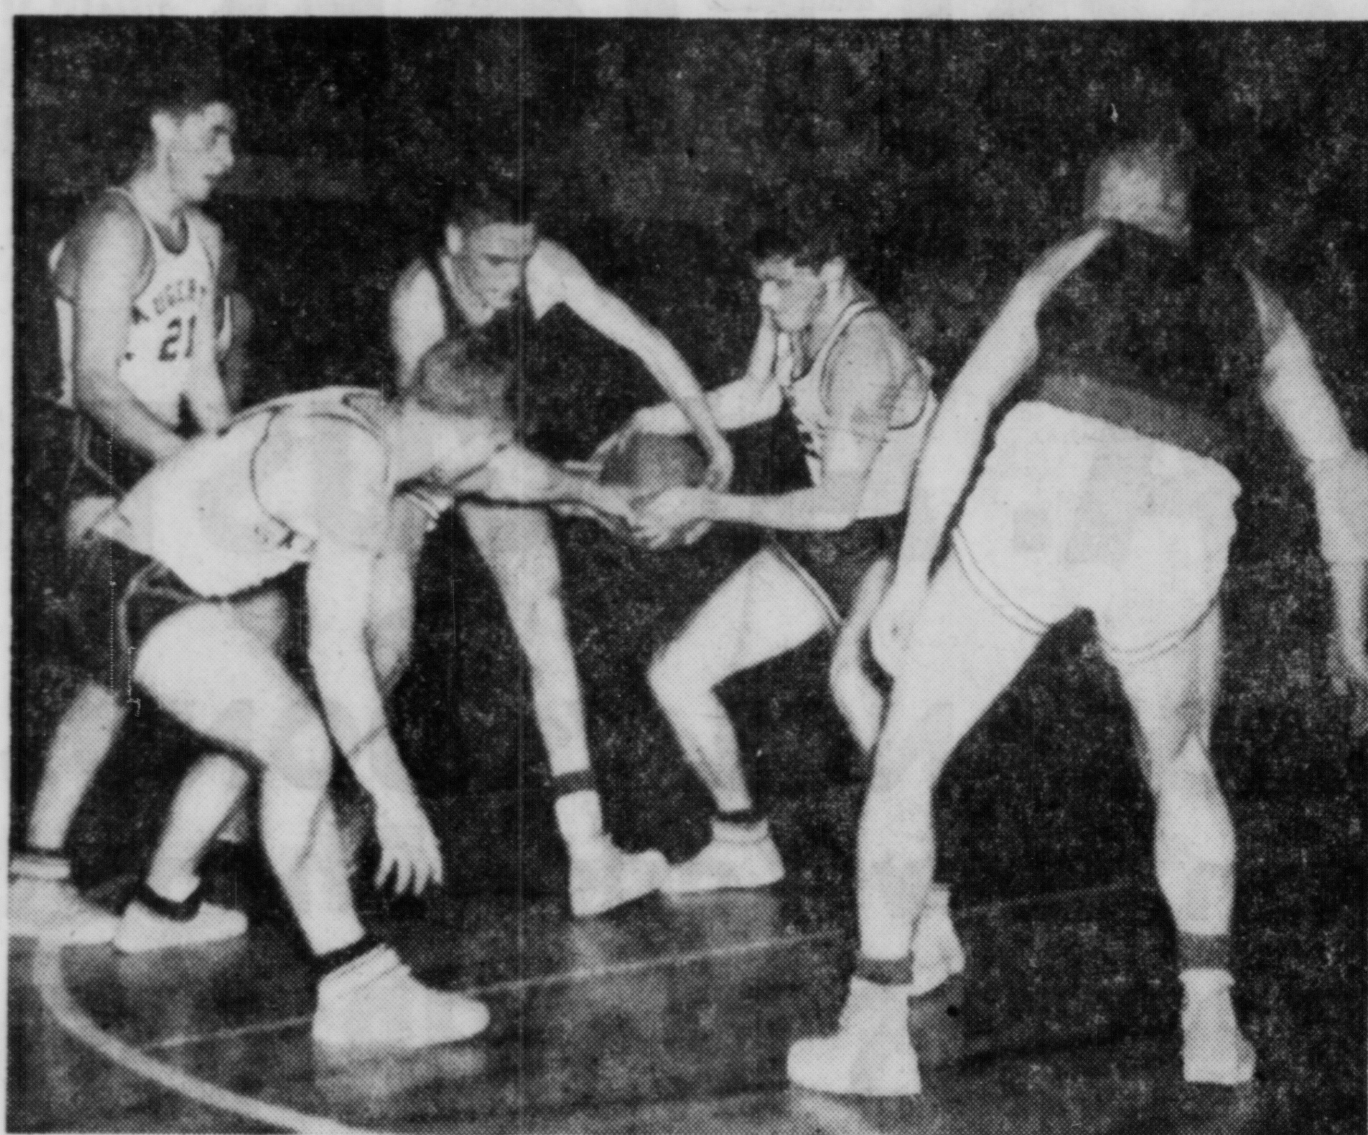

Orlando got 16 of his points in the first half on some brilliant one-handed jump-shots from the outer reaches. This was half his team's total as Saugerties trailed 32-24 at the intermission.

HANNA broke loose midway through the third period for his run of eight successive buckets, but Bud Smith's team still lost ground as the Rockland county club upped their advantage to 56-46 at the three-quarter mark.

In the final session, Hanna kept up the bombardment and managed to draw his team within seven of tying (63-56), but that was the closest they got as Orlando and Bayer, with help from Kay, kept piling up the points.

THE LAST two minutes proved very frustrating to the Sawyers as their shots curled around the rim and just would not go in. Meanwhile, Clarkstown was missing and committing costly errors in passing which Saugerties could not capitalize on.

The game brought the season to an end for the Sawyers. They compiled a very commendable

TUG-OF-WAR — Bill Hanna (second from right) of Saugerties struggles with Alex Oswick of Port Jervis for the ball in the quarterfinals of the Class B Section Nine Tourney. Joe Martin of the Sawyers and Dick Penec (11) of the Raiders rush up to help. (Freeman photo)

Marlboro Dukes Set New Scoring Records in UCAL

High spot on Marlboro Central's 1955-56 basketball campaign came in its finale against arch-rival Highland High when two scoring marks were erased.

First to go down the drain was the MCS one-year individual mark and then the all-time Ulster County Athletic League single game team total.

Youthful center Richie Mandia broke the first record with his 35 points, which established a school standard of 381. Mandia also holds the jayvee mark of 367, registered last season.

THE 100 POINTS Marlboro tallied in beating the Highlanders set the UCAL mark. A seldom used reserve, Ed Sullivan, had the honor of cracking the century barrier—on his only basket of the night.

Up until then, Marlboro had gone through an uneventful season, barely staying above the 500 level. With that success, it finished fourth in the league and compiled an overall 10-8 slate.

Half of the team's wins came outside the loop. One was a single-point decision over a strong Roosevelt team which reversed an earlier loss.

MARLBORO'S failure to win more games can be traced to a leaky defense which yielded 1222 points. It tallied a respectable amount of 1083 for a 61.7 game average.

With Lincoln Park Inn one victory removed from the championship, the second place battle in the Ulster County Tavern Shuffleboard League continued unabated this week as Ruby Inn moved into the runnerup spot, defeating Boiceville Inn, 7-3. The Rubyites now hold a two-game margin.

Lincoln Park was practically home in the final standings by virtue of its 7-3 win over Hilltop Rest. John Carpenter led the first place club with 30 points while Jack Schieb topped the Hilltoppers with 31.

THE TANDEM of Ev Dailey-Chris Lay captured double wins together with Bill Schatzel and Jack Struble with different partners. The Jack Schieb-Gil Kelder combine gained two of three victories for the Hilltoppers.

Delaware Avenue Tavern dropped a 6-4 decision to Village Rest but still picked up a game on Boiceville Inn, Mike Lane and Joe Fabysack led the Port Ewen entry with 25 points while Stan Buboltz topped the visitors with 27. Buboltz teamed with Jack Murphy to grab two for Delaware Avenue. Tom Miller and Mike Lane repeated for Village Rest.

The feverish second-place chase resumes Sunday at Ruby where the Hilltoppers get another shot. Lincoln Park could take it on the Delaware Avenue board. Village Rest travels to Boiceville.

Giants, Bucs Keep Winning

Rigney, Bragan Free From Ulcers As Teams Look Good

By The Associated Press

Bill Rigney of the New York Giants and Bobby Bragan of Pittsburgh, the only managers making their debuts in the major leagues this year, haven't yet had a chance to develop an ulcer. And the way their teams have been playing, they're liable to wind up among the healthiest big league pilots.

Rigney, up from Minneapolis, has seen his team win five of six exhibition games while Bragan, brought in from Hollywood, has led his Pirates to three triumphs in five games.

Yesterday, Rigney got neat five-hit pitching from Allan Worthington. Johnny McCall defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-1. New York collected 15 hits, including a home run by Daryl Spencer, a service returnee who is fighting for a regular infield berth.

THE PIRATES, a poor last in 1955, continued to show surprising strength in downing the Washington Senators 4-3 on Dale Long's three-run home run in the fifth inning. Vernon Law worked the first five frames for Pittsburgh and allowed only three scattered safeties.

There were several other gilded pitching performances. Herm Wehmeier, Bob Miller and Saul Rogovin limited the St. Louis Cardinals to five hits as the Philadelphia Phillies edged away with a 2-1 victory. Willie Jones' solo homer in the fourth inning off Ellis Kinder was the big blow.

THE KANSAS City A's behind the five-hit chugging of Art Ceccarelli, Chuck Kowalski and Dutch Romberger, whitewashed the Chicago White Sox 1-0. The Athletics got the winning run in the fifth inning when Minnie Minoso dropped an easy fly ball, enabling Jim Finigan to score from third.

Gene Conley, making his first start since suffering an injury last August, fired three hitless innings as the Milwaukee Braves sent the Brooklyn Dodgers down to their fifth setback in six games 6-2. Eddie Mathews whacked a pair of homers for the Braves and Charley Neal got one for the losers.

Detroit was held to four hits by Johnny Kucks, Rip Coleman and Ralph Terry as the New York Yankees clobbered the Tigers 8-2. Bill Skowron drove in three runs for the Yanks with a single and a homer. The winners touched up Joe Presko, and ex-cardinal, for four runs in the sixth inning.

IN OTHER GAMES, Dick Gernert's triple in the 10th inning gave the Boston Red Sox a 4-3 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs and the Cleveland Indians unleashed a 17-hit attack,

A total of 28,477 hunting and fishing license were sold in Ulster county during 1955, Lawrence D. Craft, county clerk, reported.

Of the total, 5167 were combined hunting and fishing tags. The county clerk's office sold 5300 hunting licenses, 7828 for fishing, 192 trapping, 9350 for big game and 460 for archery hunters. Free fishing license tallied 220. Non-resident tags included 426 for hunting, 645 for fishing, 338 big game, three for archery and 198 three-day fishing for a total of 1610.

There were 39 alien licenses sold. Lost license certificates tallied 150.

Back's Cedaraps and Pough-keepie Trabassos won lop-sided victories in the Kingston Basketball Tournament last night at the municipal auditorium.

Back's, with George Carpouzis leading the way with 39 points, racked up the Catskill Merchants, 99-75 in the lid opener, while in the nightcap Trabassos outclassed Otisville, 107-77.

Back's went to the front in the opening period to lead 21-10 and kept pouring it on the rest of the way. The city hoopers climaxed the win with a rousing 32-point final period.

Marty Kaye and Leroy Scott acted as an able supporting cast for Carpouzis. Kaye rimmed 24 and Scott 18, while Jerry Kaplan added 11.

Irving Carter topped the Merchants with 26 points. Marv Sims contributed 16, brother Dave 14 and Duke Deyo 10.

Otisville led the Bridge City five 27-24 in the first period, but after that they were snowed under. Trabassos took over at halftime 51-45 and rampaged for 28 points in the final periods to win in a breeze.

Six connected for double figures for the winners. Boggs was the leader with 22, Pelligrino hit 20, Herrmann 18, Oakley 17 and Masten and Fumasoli 10 each.

John Clausman was the big gun for the Mountain Villagers with 19. Bob Walker threw in 16 and Ken Hosking and Jerry Ketcham 10 apiece.

Action resumes Sunday at 7:30 with Reddy Kilowatts of Newburgh facing Culver Motors of Port Jervis and Stamford Connecticut K of C vs. Wappingers Falls BBA in the afterpiece.

Red Wings Gain Valuable 2-2 Tie

(By The Associated Press)

The Detroit Red Wings definitely were in the driver's seat today in the battle for the second place as the National Hockey League neared the end of the regular season.

The Wings gained a 2-2 tie with New York last night when rookie Norm Ullman came through with a two-point goal and held their two-point advantage over the Rangers.

The Rangers face the tough Canadiens Saturday at Montreal, where they have won only one game in four years, and close out the schedule against the same club Sunday at Madison Square Garden.

MEANTIME, the Wings have only one game remaining—that at home Sunday against the Toronto Maple Leafs, who themselves are hoping to edge Boston for the fourth and final spot in the Stanley Cup playoffs.

NBA Playoffs to Open In St. Louis, Boston

(By The Associated Press)
The National Basketball Assn. playoffs open tomorrow in Boston and St. Louis with six of the league's 10 leading scorers in action, including Bob Pettit, the circuit's newly crowned offensive ace.

The field for the playoffs was completed yesterday when the Syracuse Nationals defeated New York's Knickerbockers 82-77 to break a deadlock for third place in the Eastern Division. As the result the Nats will open a best-of-three series against the Celtics in Boston Saturday afternoon. The game will be televised nationally by NBC.

ST. LOUIS and Minneapolis play off tonight in St. Louis for second money in the Western Division but regardless of the outcome the same teams clash Saturday in the first of a best-of-three series.

Philadelphia's Warriors, Eastern Division winner, will meet the survivor of the Syracuse-Boston series while Fort Wayne, best in the Western Division, takes on the winner of the St. Louis-Minneapolis series.

Pettit, the Hawks' scoring ace, goes into the playoffs as the league's most prolific point getter. Official final statistics released today showed the big former Louisiana State All-America won the scoring title with 1849 points for an average of 25.7 a game. Only George Mikan of Minneapolis ever scored more. He had 1932 in 1951 and 1865 in 1950.

PHILADELPHIA'S Neil Johnston, winner the last two years, finished third with 1547 points and a 22.1 average as teammate Paul Arizin, 1952 champion, took over second with 1741 points and an average of 24.2.

The next five in the final scoring standings will be in Saturday's games. They are Clyde Lovellette, Minneapolis 1526; Dolph Schayes, Syracuse, 1472; Bill Sharman, Boston, 1434; Bob Cousy, Boston, 1356 and Ed Macauley, Boston, 1240.

George Yardley of Fort Wayne finished ninth with 1233 points and teammate Larry Foust 10th with 1166.

Post-Season Roundup 3 Top Cage Tourneys In For Busy Weekend

(By The Associated Press)

The three big post-season college tournaments—national collegiate championship, national invitation tournament and NAIA—get under a full head of steam this weekend.

The far-flung NCAA tourney, with doubleheaders tonight in Philadelphia, Lawrence, Kan., Iowa City and Corvallis, Ore., grabs most of the attention. Tonight's winners meet in the same cities tomorrow night, and the winners of those games converge on Evanston, Ill., next Thursday for the big wind-up.

THE NAIA, after a strenuous week, goes into the semi-finals tonight in Kansas City with McNeese State meeting Pittsburgh (Kan.) and Texas Southern playing Wheaton.

The NIT opens with doubleheaders tomorrow afternoon and night in Madison Square Garden, New York.

The big game is at Corvallis, where San Francisco, No. 1 in the nation in the final Associated Press poll with a 25-0 record, meets UCLA, No. 8 with 21-5. UCLA has won 17 straight since a December loss to USF, while the Dons boast the all-time major college winning streak of 51. By coincidence, the last team to beat them was UCLA. That was early in December, 1954.

THE SECOND game at Corvallis matches Utah, champion of the Skyline Conference at 22-5, against Seattle (17-8).

Little Morehead of Kentucky which ran up 107 points last week in whipping Marshall (WVa) in a first-round game, tonight meets a tough defensive team in Iowa, champions of the Big Ten for the second successive year.

Morehead, the nation's highest scoring major team during the regular season with 96 points a game, doesn't figure to score 96, or 107, against the nation's No. 4 team in the feature game at Iowa City. Morehead's record is 18-9, Iowa 17-5.

The other game at Iowa City also is a David and Goliath affair with little Wayne (Mich), 17-1 during the regular season and surprise victory over DePaul in the first round, taking on mighty Kentucky, No. 9 in the poll and 19-5 on the season.

SOUTHERN METHODIST, which barely missed being extinguished by the upset wave in the NCAA first round against Texas Tech, puts its 23-2 record and No. 7 national ranking against Houston's 17-5 mark in one game at Lawrence.

Kansas State (16-7), Big Seven titlist, meets Oklahoma City (19-6) in the other game.

ALL OF the Philadelphia entries reached the second round via an upset, so it's hard to pick a favorite.

Temple, 23-3 after knocking off Holy Cross, meets Connecticut (17-9) and Canisius (18-6) plays Dartmouth (17-10). Canisius pulled the upset of the tourney thus far by knocking off North Carolina State, No. 2 in the nation, in the first round Monday.

Dartmouth, tourney runner-up in 1942 and 1944, reached the second round by surprising West Virginia and Connecticut made it by reversing a regular season loss to Manhattan.

Herbert Leads St. Pete's Open

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 16 (AP)—A tightly-bunched field of par-busters, with Lionel Herbert nursing a stroke lead, swung into the second round of the $12,500 St. Petersburg Open tournament today.

Fifty-three pros and one amateur bettered the par of 36-36—72 over the 6,489-yard Lakewood Country Club course in the opening round. Another 21 matched par. The field will be cut to the low 60 pros and 10 amateurs, plus ties, for the final two rounds.

HERBERT TOURED the sandy layout in 31-34—65, seven under par, Frank Stranahan and Art Wall Jr. had 4-under-par 32s on the back nine to grab the runnerup spot with 66s.

Hans Merrell and Don Fairfield were next at 67. And nine others with 68s included Herbert's soldier brother, Jay, who registers from Sanford, Fla.; Ted Kroll and National Open champion Jack Fleck.

Three former winners of this annual event—Cary Middlecoff, the favorite and defending champion; Jack Burke Jr. and Jimmy Demarest, both golfing out of Kiamnesia Lake, N. Y.—were among 13 tied at 69.

Young Singles Leader in ABC

Rochester, N. Y., March 16 (AP)—George Young, of Detroit's Pfeiffer Beer bowling team, produced three strikes on his final three balls to become the new singles leader of the American Bowling Congress tournament yesterday.

With games of 225, 226 and 245, Young's total of 696 was enough to edge out long-standing leader Robert Rothgerber of Louisville, Ky., who has 693.

The rest of the famous Pfeiffer team, which is defending its ABC title, failed to place among the first five of any division.

Marcel Products of East Paterson, N. J., rolled into second place with 2,946 in the team division; third spot was taken by the Authorized Brake Service team of St. Louis, Mo., with 2,944; while fourth place was preempted by McMahon's Prochop of Paramus, N. J., with 2,919.

Logart Meets Ortega
In 10-Rounder Tonight

New York, March 16 (AP)—Two fast-rising young welterweights with a punch, Cuba's Isaac (Kid) Logart and Mexico's Gaspar (Indian) Ortega, put their victory studded records on the line tonight (NBC-TV) in the 10-round main event at Madison Square Garden.

Logart, 22-year-old sensation from Camaguey, Cuba, has a record of 41 victories, five defeats and five draws in 51 outings. Fifteen knockouts show on Ortega's record of 32 wins and five defeats.

Swimmer Seeks Triple Triumph

Ithaca, N. Y., March 16 (AP)—George Breen of Cortland State Teachers, who began swimming at the age of 12, churned in pursuit of a triple triumph in the Eastern Intercollegiate Swimming championships today after setting an American record in the metric mile.

Breen, a senior from Buffalo, entered the trials for the 220-yard freestyle today. He will compete in the 440 freestyle tomorrow.

HE CUT 26½ seconds from the American record for a short course in the 1,500-meter freestyle last night when he won the invitation title in 17:44.5. Breen finished 140 yards ahead of Frank Nauss of North Carolina State, who was second.

The listed record for the 25-yard course is 18:10.8, set by John Marshall of Yale at Columbus, Ohio, April 5, 1951.

Marshall in the same year set the previous meet record of 18:22.8. The national college record is 18:11.5, made by Ford Konno of Ohio State in 1952.

For a long course, the world record is listed as 18:19.0, set by Hiroshin Furuhashi, Japan. No world short-course record is listed for any distance greater than 500 meters.

BREEN FINISHED second in the 440 and third in the 220 last year.

Several hundred schoolmates from nearby Cortland cheered Breen on. Many brought stop watches.

Afterward, he told his parents he "had a hunch I was making good time."

Before last night, Breen's best times were 18:30 official and 18:14.4 unofficial. He swam in YMCA pools but wasn't in competition before he entered college four years ago.

Nashua 'Ready'
For Stiff Test
In $100,000 'Cap'

Miami, Fla., March 16 (AP)—Nashua, the millionaire race horse, faces one of the sternest tests of his brilliant career in the $100,000 Gulfstream Park Handicap at a mile and a quarter tomorrow but the trainer of the big bay colt says he is "ready."

Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, who conditions Nashua, sent his 4-year-old star over the Hialeah track yesterday and Nashua did the half mile in :45 2/5 and the five furlongs in a blistering :59.

NASHUA WILL carry a crushing 129-pounds—heaviest impost of his career—and will spot his opponents from 4 to 19 pounds.

Just the same, handicappers have made the Leslie Combs II thoroughbred a 4 to 5 favorite to take the $83,300 winner's share and push his total earnings to $1,121,315. That would surpass Citation's world record of $1,085,760. Eddie Arcaro, Nashua's regular rider, will be aboard.

SECOND CHOICE in the early line is Maine Chance Farm's Jet Action, who set a new track record of 1:09 for six furlongs at Hialeah last month and gets in the race tomorrow under 125 pounds.

Brookmeade Stable's Sailor, third behind Nashua and Social Outcast in the recent Widener, will carry 119 pounds.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Find gets in under only 116 pounds. The race also is expected to attract Hasty House Farm's Mister Black, Sam Tufano's Wise Margin, and Mielieux, owned by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Markus.

Amateur Standing Of Figure Skater Is Challenged

Philadelphia, March 16 (AP)—A sudden challenge of the amateur standing of Ronnie Robertson, one of the world's top figure skaters, today clouded the U. S. championships in which he was expected to be a top contender. The United States Figure Skating Assn. announced last night that "a representative of a foreign skating association" had accused Robertson of demanding "excessive expenses" for an exhibition.

Robertson finished second to Hayes Alan Jenkins in the recent Olympic and world's men's competition.

"The question of his status overshadowed the 'rubber' meeting scheduled for tonight between Olympic queen Tenley Albright and world women's titlist Carol Heiss.

Meeting March 23 To Set Lakes Opening

Cleveland, March 16 (AP)—The ice committee of the Lake Carriers Assn. has scheduled a meeting for next Friday, March 23, for a possible decision on the opening of the Great Lakes navigation season.

At a meeting yesterday attended by 16 vessel operators, coast guard representatives and weather bureau men, the committee reported that ice conditions on the upper lakes did not appear favorable at this time for an early opening.

The group reported that most ice in the upper lakes was about four inches thick with an unusually heavy blanket of snow, which will slow the melting.

Operators at the Soo locks expect to have one lock open around April 1. The port of Calcutta on Lake Huron may be in operation by March 21 and passage through the Straits of Mackinac may begin around March 26, it was reported.

Appeals Court Favors Convict In Its Decision

Albany, N. Y., March 16 (AP)—The Court of Appeals has decided in favor of a convict who argued that a suspended sentence should not have been counted as an offense in classifying him a third offender.

The state's highest court by a 4-3 vote yesterday reversed the Appellate Division of State Supreme Court and ordered Albert F. Shaw, an inmate of Attica Prison, sentenced as a second offender.

Shaw maintained in his appeal that a judgment returned Nov. 19, 1925, in Onondaga County Court was not a conviction. He had been charged with attempted second-degree grand larceny. The court deferred sentence and placed him on probation.

The court ordered that Shaw be sentenced in Monroe County Court. He has been serving a term of 15 to 20 years pronounced July 12, 1949. His new sentence presumably will be for a shorter term.

Chief Judge Albert Conway delivered the majority opinion. He said he construed the Onondaga sentence to be a suspended one and added:

"It is quite clear that the appellant here may not be sentenced as a third offender where there are not two prior judgments of guilt as to him. There cannot be two judgments when there has been as to one conviction a suspended sentence and therefore no judgment."

Associate Judges Marvin R. Dye and Charles W. Frossel concurred in Conway's opinion. Associate Judge John Van Voorhis wrote a separate opinion holding that the Appellate Division should be reversed. Associate Judge Stanley H. Fuld wrote the dissenting opinion in which Associate Judges Charles S. Desmond and Adrian P. Burke concurred.

Washington, March 16 (AP)—American industrial production remained at near record levels in February, according to government statistics. ## Why We Say--

STORIES OF A BUILDING

HAD PAINTINGS: The reason
we call the floors of a building
"stories" is because early European builders used to paint picture stories on the sides of their houses. Each floor of the house had a different story painted on the outside walls, thus making each floor a different story.

Held on Check Charge

New York, March 16 (AP)—Accused of swindling Gypsy Markoff, night club entertainer, of $3,790 by a bad check, Isadore
George Rubenstein, 43, of (69-86
136th street) Kew Gardens Hills,
Queens, was booked by police last night on charges of forgery and grand larceny. Miss
Markoff told detectives she met
Rubenstein three months ago through a mutual friend and in January he asked her to cash a check on the bank of Nevada, signed "Kibbie Rubenstein" who he said was his brother and owner of an exclusive resort there.
Miss Markoff said she cashed

and the check came back stamped "not known."

Dartball League Sets Banquet-Series Date

Saugerties, March 15 — The date for the annual banquet and world series as well as arrangements for the highlight of the dartball season were formulated at a special meeting of Saugerties Dartball League held in Centerville Methodist Church hall, Centerville Wednesday night.
 The banquet and Saugerties Dartball World Series will be held at Centerville fire hall, Centerville, Monday, May 7. A roast beef dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m., by the auxiliary of the fire company. The world series games will begin at 8 p. m.
 Virgil Finger of Service Center was appointed ticket chairman and he announced his committee to include Tracy Hommel of West Saugerties, president of the league; Woodrow Spierl of Centerville and Leonard Sinnott of West Camp.
 Mr. Finger announced that the ticket deadline would be Monday, April 23. Team captains will receive tickets for his team and will be responsible for the ticket returns.
 Arrangements for the finals and world series play designated that the winner of the dartball series would receive the Saugerties Dartball League trophy. The loser of the series will be awarded two dozen darts and the new board which is used during the series games.
 The pennant winner which will be the team finishing in first place at the end of the regular season will receive an engraved plaque designating them as the pennant winner for the season. The trophy and awards committee includes President Hommel and Secretary-treasurer Robert Mower.
 Rules of the all star game, a special feature which follows the dartball series play, were outlined.
 According to the rules adopted by the members present an all star player is designated by each team in the league according to high averages for a minimum of 70 games in the season. An alternate is also chosen from each team in the event of curcumstance which would prohibit an all star to play the night of the event.
 A resolution was passed to give a trophy to the all star who has the highest average for the all star competition.
 In regard to the play offs which will begin at the end of the regular season, the second, third, fourth and fifth teams in the standings at the end of the regular season will play off and the ultimate winner will play the league pennant winner in the dartball series at the annual banquet.
 In the event of a tie at the end of the regular season among the eligible teams in the play offs, the tie teams must play a neutral court to determine who will have a place in the play offs.

Dairy Picketing Ends Today at Kyserike Plant

A one-day picket line established at Shawangunk Cooperative Dairies, Inc., Kyserike, the reason for which remained a mystery, was withdrawn today, it was reported by Undersheriff Clayton W. Vredenburg.

Harry Snyder, manager of the dairies, was not available for comment today. Mrs. Snyder told a Freeman reporter that she did not know the reason for the picketing and Mr. Snyder "didn't seem to know the reason himself." Mrs. Snyder said the pickets' appearance was "entirely unexpected."

The plant, which according to a company spokesman employs 10 men, was picketed Thursday by Teamsters Local 338. County Investigator Arthur Brown reported there were no disorders.

Deputies Arthur Smith and Chester Wolven who were assigned to the plant again early today returned at about 10:30 a. m. Undersheriff Vredenburg and Mr. Brown who returned from the plant at about 9 a. m., said "there were no signs of pickets."

Mr. Brown said tankers were "arriving on schedule" today at the plant which, it is understood, makes large shipments of milk to the New York metropolitan area.

Deputies Smith, Fred Brinkman and Mr. Brown were assigned to the plant yesterday. "Four men were stationed at the plant but only two were picketing at a time," Mr. Brown said. "There were no disorders and no difficulty," he said.

MORE THAN 80 flights into and out of New York's La Guardia Airport were canceled between 6 a. m. and noon because of weather conditions in other parts of the country. Snow at the airport itself delayed other flights.

The city weather bureau predicted cloudy weather and temperatures in the mid-40s for the big St. Patrick's Day parade on Fifth avenue tomorrow.

Meanwhile at Miami, Fla., the Weather Bureau there ordered small craft warnings posted along the state's west coast and from Daytona Beach north to Cape Hatteras along the Atlantic Coast. Winds of 20 to 30 miles per hour were expected.

Three gas stations, without restaurant service, will be at Sloatsburg for New York-bound traffic, and at Ardsley and Indian Castle for Buffalo-bound traffic.

At Sloatsburg and Indian Castle, covered foot bridges will be erected to permit motorists to walk to restaurants on the opposite side of the thruway.

FORBIDDEN FRUIT — Rickie Reynolds, eight-year-old Tulsa, Okla., boy, seems to be considering the consequences of eating an orange. If he does he's apt to suffer a headache, develop a wheeze, an itch or a cough. He is allergic to dozens of different foods, feathers, hair, rugs, country air and scores of other items. The medicines in front of him are those he is treated with each day to combat the allergies which his mother, Mrs. Pierce James Reynolds, says change often. (AP Wirephoto).

QUIT BOTHERING ME — Cynthia Wood, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Wood of Salt Lake City, seems annoyed by the intruders, police summoned to the Woods' home by her parents when they couldn't find her anywhere in the house. She was not in bed sleeping, as they thought her to be. Even a search of closets proved unsuccessful. Investigating policemen found Cynthia asleep in her room, but under the bed, March 15. # New York Area Trainees at Dix Issued New Patch

Fort Dix, N. J.—New York basic infantry trainees, who make up a large segment of Fort Dix's population will shed the combat-famed shoulder patch of the "Fighting 69th" Infantry Division and don the "Big A" of the First Army after re-designation ceremonies here Friday. The post will then be known as the U. S. Army Training Center, Infantry.

The 69th, re-activated May 1, 1954, has trained thousands of Empire State inductees in the basic principles of soldiery during its nearly two years of federal service here.

The wartime 69th was activated at Camp Shelby, Miss., in May, 1943, and on Christmas Day of 1944 was thrown into the bitter "Battle of the Bulge" in Europe. Continuing its fight across the continent, the 69th staged one of the most dramatic events in world history when it became the first unit to link up with the Russians at the Elbe river, in Germany, April 25, 1945.

Under its new designation, Fort Dix will continue its primary mission as the largest basic training center in the northeast.

authority to subpoena witnesses. Lehman quoted the President as having advocated moderation and as having warned against "the extremists" at his news conference Wednesday.

"DOES HE (Eisenhower) picture himself as a mediator between two contending factions, the rights and merits of whose respective positions he is unable to assess?" Lehman asked.

"In this situation, is he a neutralist?"

Lehman said the manifesto filed in the Senate Monday, signed by most southern Congressmen, "would be absurd, if it were not so deadly serious and so highly dangerous." That document pledged the signers to oppose by all lawful means the ending of race segregation in public schools.

Reds Protest Return

Tokyo, March 16 (P) — Red China has protested to Britain that the return of a Chinese Nationalist Sabre jet pilot from Hong Kong to Formosa was "an unfriendly action toward China." Peiping radio said today. A New China news agency broadcast heard in Tokyo said Red China's Foreign Ministry had sent a protest to the office of the British charge d'affaires in Peiping. The Communist note demanded that British authorities in Hong Kong hold the Nationalist plane and not give it to the Nationalists.

Farm Action Brighter

Washington, March 16 (P) — The outlook for final Senate action soon on the farm bill brightened today on word that senators opposing higher dairy price supports and a two-price plan for rice might not press fights against them. Sen. Ellender (D-La.), floor manager for the bill, said he understood the threatened battles might not develop, and added: "I hope we can wind this up some time tonight but it may not be possible."
